

ACCENTURE 2019 GLOBAL RISK MANAGEMENT STUDY

VIDEO TRANSCRIPT

When interconnected risks are accelerating faster than ever,
and with business becoming ever more complex,
focus and prioritization become critical skills for survival.

Risk functions should have a clear view of the factors that they can influence and the assets they have to protect.
This is the sphere of control.

Accenture's 2019 Global Risk Management Study gives you insight into emerging risks categories,
smart technology adoption, and valuable data sources.

So you can prioritize, prepare, and proactively scan the horizon to mitigate new threats and drive business value.
