VIDEO TRANSCRIPT

ACCENTURE IN AWS RE: INVENT

The scene then cuts to a frame stating "seamless cloud solutions" followed by "AI offerings that drive value, quickly and responsibly."

The last three words are highlighted in light purple. The next frame reads "and more data transformation for our clients" with each frame featuring unique animated pointillism graphics. A new frame appears, showcasing the logos of Accenture and BBVA side by side. An icon made of pointillism graphics appears alongside the words "Together, we reinvented digital banking" on the side.

A woman wearing glasses peers through a digital screen with the text "by developing a comprehensive digital sales model". The scene then cuts to a building complex with animated line streaks on its façade and the text "brought in 11.1M new customers in a year" highlighted in light purple. Next, an animated pointillism-style graphic of a cloud appears against a black background with the words "Let's turn your cloud potential into cloud power". The scene then cuts to the "Reinvented with Accenture" animated logo. The phrase Accenture at #AWSreInvent 2024 | Dec 2-6 is displayed at the bottom.
