

MILITARY COMMUNITY AT ACCENTURE FEDERAL SERVICES: MEET LEE

VIDEO TRANSCRIPT

When you decide to get out of the military and transition to civilian life, I think everyone has this uneasiness if you will, just like, Hey, this is new to me, especially after a 20-year career. Fortunately, for me, I met some wonderful, wonderful people in recruiting that eased that tension, that transition.

I just so happened to run into a recruiter that works here at AFS. Her name is Kirsten. I was still in the military. I was getting ready to retire. I was on the fence about retirement and was thinking about dropping my paperwork. We just had a conversation about some of the work in that realm of cybersecurity that we're in. She just asked me about me. I just felt like she was genuine. She said, "I might have something for you. I want you to talk to a couple of program managers. Are you interested?"

To have somebody like that that you can call and talk to and encourage you along the way, no pressure, it was just great.
